President's Message

I hope that each of you have had joyous holidays with family and friends, sharing good times and creating memories.

Now that 2014 is here, we can apply the three "R's" in a different context regarding our work within our organization: Reflect, Review and Report. Reports must be postmarked and mailed (via the Post Office) no later than Monday, February 3. (The extra time is allowed due to February 1 falling on a Saturday.) Please notice elsewhere in this newsletter the current names/addresses for the District Conservation and Public Issues Chairmen, which are different from what is shown on the Reporting grid that club presidents received in the Reporting packet last fall.

A reminder: Also in the Reporting packets was information pertaining to the scholarships offered by GFWC Illinois, which range from $300 (1), $500 (1) to $1,000 (7). I hope that each club president or Education Chairman has forwarded these scholarship forms to their respective high schools. All scholarship applications must be signed by the local club president and postmarked by February 15.

The proposed revisions to the District Bylaws, which were emailed on November 21 and presented by Bylaws Chairman Evelyn Dill at the December District meeting, were approved as presented with only a couple of minor changes. Copies of the approved changes are available via email upon request. The master file will be updated for inclusion in the 2014-2015 District yearbook.

I encourage all club members to participate in the upcoming Arts and Crafts Exhibit. Sharing your work with others through participating in this exhibit allows others to admire your accomplishments. Remember to arrive early in order to check in your entry prior to 10:00 AM. Let's have a great turnout for this fun event. A business meeting will be also be held.

Happy New Year to each of you!

In Federation friendship,

Marly

GFWC -- Who we are

In all 50 states and more than a dozen countries, our members work locally to create global change. GFWC clubwomen are mothers, sisters, wives, daughters, doctors, teachers, and community leaders who are dedicated to enhancing the lives of others through volunteer service.

From our historic Headquarters in Washington, D.C., GFWC leaders and staff offer support and guidance to more than 100,000 members and more than 4,000 clubs, who collaborate on projects that touch lives in their own hometowns and around the globe.

GFWC is distinguished from other service organizations by the breadth of our outreach. Our community service programs span all areas of the lives of our members, their families, and communities: arts, conservation, education, home life, public issues, and international outreach.

In addition, GFWC has earned a reputation as a powerful force in the fight against domestic violence. GFWC was recognized on the floor of the United States Senate as "a gem among our midst" by Senator Joseph Biden (Del.) for our work in bringing hope to victims and survivors of domestic violence and abuse. (November 16, 2006)

In 1994, GFWC founder Jane Cunningham Croly was inducted into the National Women's Hall of Fame in Seneca Falls, N.Y. For her work in founding GFWC, Croly was said to have "set in motion the power of a vast, previously untapped and unorganized sisterhood of capable American women that would reshape American society."

Our members work each day to continue this legacy and to reshape their communities to enhance the lives of others.
